B. INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING MAINTENANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE FILES AND THE MANNER OF DEALING WITH ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS.

1. The administrative and office files should in future be stitched after perforation of the file papers at two suitable points on the left side. The two holes in papers should be at appropriate places for stitching with fairly long tags.
2. The stitching of the new files should be so effected that the office noting and the file papers are not disturbed in any manner by the stitching holes. In order to achieve this end, two holes at the proper places should be made in all note sheets before they are brought in use. Sufficient margin should be left on both sides of the sheets so that the noting can be read without opening the tags of the files. New files should be opened in place of the old ones which have already grown bulky and the above instructions should be followed for maintaining the new files. Those files which are not bulky at the moment should be immediately converted into the new system by making two holes in all the papers. However, extreme care should be taken that this process does not mutilate the existing notings. Where it is not possible to convert these files in the aforesaid manner, new files be opened.
3. It will be the personal responsibility of the Section Officer of the Branch concerned to ensure that the above instructions are effectively complied with by all Dealing Assistants.
[Office Order No.HHC/+Admn.6 (46)/78, dated April 6,1981]
4. The administrative records of the Registry must be properly maintained in a manner that they are readily available for reference in future.
5. As and when any communication/information is circulated to the Officers/officials of the Registry or to the Subordinate Courts, the records showing such circulation must be maintained properly so that in future, a plea is not raised that such matter was not brought to the notice of a particular person or class.
6. As and when any information/communication is to be circulated to the Officers and officials of the Registry, one copy thereof must be affixed on the Court Notice Board, unless otherwise directed.
[Office Order No.HHC/Estt.3 (209)/84, dated January 9,1997]
7. The officers of the rank of Superintendent(s) (now Section Officers) and above will ensure that all Rules, instructions guidelines and precedents relevant for consideration of the subject matters are clearly set out in the office notings before submission to the higher authorities and notes should be duly numbered.
[Office Order No.HHC/Admn. 1(18)/78-V dated December 13,1996]

Ordinarily no communication /application representation/submission/file which is required to be put up before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice should take more than 15 days in any event from the date of the receipt/initiation. This is, however, the outer time limit and the processing period for each matter should depend upon the nature of case being dealt with.
9. The officer and official concerned with the receipt and opening of dak envelopes shall invariably open the envelope in such a manner that the postal seal, postal stamp and address of the sender and that of the addressee are not damaged in any manner.
10. The officer before whom dak is put up shall after going through the dak and taking into consideration its nature shall mark 'P' and 'D' on the margin of the letter with red ink. The letter 'P' denotes 'preserve' and letter 'D' denotes 'destroy'.
11. The envelope of the letter on the margin of which 'D' is marked shall be destroyed after a month after obtaining the approval of the officer not below the rank of Addl. Registrar whereas the envelope of the letter on which 'P' is marked, shall be preserved for a period of one year or such further period as may be required. After the expiry of period of one year or the extended period the envelope attached with the letter on which 'P' has been marked shall be destroyed.
[Office order No.HHC/Rules/Misc./1/96, dated April 23, 1997]
12. In exceptional cases in unforeseen circumstances, such applications may be presented on a day before such date but by 11.00 A.M.
13. No application for adjournment of 'actual date' cases which are to be included in the list, shall be presented to and entertained by the Registrar unless consent thereto is given by the opposite party(s).
14. After receipt of the application, the Registrar will place the application before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice for orders.
